FROM WASHINGTON!

Enemy Have Attacked the Fortifications Around the City.

SKIRMISHING SINCE DAYLIGHT.

CAPITAL IN IMMEDIATE DANGER.

We have reliable intelligence from Washington that last night about fifteen to twenty thousand Rebels encamped around Silver Springs, and at daylight advanced on Washington! Skirmishing commenced before day-break!

The enemy advanced upon the works on Fourteenth and Seventeenth streets, and at 11 o'clock were preparing in full view to carry the works by assault.

At 11:30 heavy firing was heard in the city, and the supposition is that an assault had been made.

Urgent appeals have been sent for men in companies or regiments.

Our capital is in imminent peril.

THE BUGLE CRY IN CHESTER COUNTY

The Old 175th Pennsylvania in the Field.

Special to The Evening Telegraph.

WEST CHESTER, July 12, A. M.—Colonel Frank Hooton, second by the Vigilance Committee, is endeavoring to rally the old 175th (a nine months' regiment).

Men, single, in squads, companies, or battalions, should report promptly to Colonel Hooton, at West Chester. There are men enough to fill the ranks in twenty-four hours. The credit of old West Chester is at stake.

Delaware County in Motion!

The following dispatch has just been received from the Hon. John M. Broomall, dated Media, July 12, A. M.:

"The quota of Delaware county will be filled to-day."

FROM BALTIMORE.

Special to The Evening Telegraph.

BALTIMORE, July 12.—Our city is still in a ferment of excitement. All business is suspended, except that connected with military operations.

The streets corners are crowded with anxious groups.

Among the private residences visited by the Rebels is the splendid mansion of George C. Westbury, Esq., formerly of the Girard House, Philadelphia, and Willard's, Washington. They have helped themselves to whatever they took a fancy to, and stole a fine blooded horse from the stable.

Communication Resumed with Baltimore.

HAYES-DE GRACE, July 12.—A construction train left this morning for the railroad and telegraph lines of the American Telegraph Company.

Communication with Baltimore will probably be fully re-established by evening.

The balance of the passengers who were in the trains captured yesterday, consisting of ladies and children, arrived at Perryville this morning on a steamer, and have left by a train for Philadelphia.

REBEL CAVALRY REPORTED AT BELAIR, MD.

HAYES-DE GRACE, July 12, A. M.—Parties from Belair, fifteen miles from this place, report a force of Rebel cavalry 1000 strong at that point.

REBEL INVASION.

GILMORE'S GUERRILLAS AT WORK.

A MOVEMENT ON THE PHILADELPHIA RAILROAD BRIDGES.

From the Baltimore American of Monday evening, July 11. Our city is very quiet this morning, though the work of strengthening our defenses is progressing with considerable zeal. All the most important points of the city are being fortified, and the most important of these are the bridges over the Philadelphia Railroad. A large force of cavalry was reported to be moving in that direction yesterday.

FROM BALTIMORE.

REBELS MASSING THEIR FORCES.

MAJOR-GEN. FRANKLIN A PRISONER.

ALL QUIET AROUND THE CITY.

BALTIMORE, July 12.—Everything is quiet around the city. Last night a force of Rebels passed through Towson, on the way to join the main force. They had with them Major-General Franklin and staff, captured on the Philadelphia bridge, on Monday.

Only one bridge, that over the Gunpowder, was burned on the Philadelphia road.

Rebels in a stand still, nearly all the objects from the city being closed.

FROM HAYES-DE GRACE.

HAYES-DE GRACE, July 12, A. M.—After closing my despatches last night at Perryville, I crossed over to this side of the river, finding there was a strong guard here, and no Rebels supposed to be in the vicinity.

The Bush river bridge was saved by the timely arrival of the gunboat Fachin, Acting Master Street, which reached a point commanding the bridge about eight o'clock.

The enemy shortly after appeared in sight on the hills, but retired on seeing the gunboat.

General Franklin was on the train in evening dress, but was taken out to General Gilmore by a Baltimore lady on this train, and was taken to her house.

The road is now reported entirely clear, and I start for Baltimore immediately.

THE CAPTURE OF GENERAL FRANKLIN AGAIN ANNOUNCED.

HAYES-DE GRACE, July 12.—In reference to the capture of General Franklin, it is now asserted that the Rebel General Gilmore recognized him, and politely requested him to leave the car. He then placed the General in a buggy under guard.

Arrival of the "Elena."

New York, July 12.—The steamer Elena has arrived, with Liverpool dates of the 30th, which have been anticipated.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, July 9.—Advises from New Zealand to May 10 mention, among other things, the capture of General Franklin. One hundred British were killed and wounded, including several prominent officers. In another engagement the natives were worsted.

Swatich Island dates to June 13 state that the election of delegates to a Constitutional Convention was progressing. The Convention will forbid the importation of opium.

Advices from Acapulco June 29, say that the French garrison is on the best terms with the natives in the vicinity, but all communication with the interior is cut. Manifesto remains locked to all but European vessels. A French frigate had left to take possession of Galaz.

The Nevada Constitutional Convention has adopted a section favorable to a National Currency.

Visit to Ishmael Day.

We learn from a gentleman who arrived this morning from Hartford, that the Rebels last night, two hundred strong, stopped on the farm of Joshua Price in Litchfield, Valley. They were under the command of Harry Gilmore, and one of Mr. Price's sons was one of the party. At 5 o'clock they were ordered to leave the house and to go to the barn, and to leave the house and to go to the barn, and to leave the house and to go to the barn.

After they closed the road about ten more stragglers arrived and followed on after them. A short distance from the barn, the Rebels, who were the remnants of the 175th, were ordered to leave the house and to go to the barn, and to leave the house and to go to the barn.

SIGEL OCCUPIES FREDERICK.

GEN. SULLIVAN AT MARTINSBURG.

ALL QUIET ON NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD TO-DAY.

REBELS EAST OF FREDERICK IN FORCE.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

Special to The Evening Telegraph.

HARRISBURG, July 12.—P. M.—Our forces under Sigel have occupied Frederick city this morning. Our forces at Harper's Ferry are in communication with General Sullivan at Martinsburg, and will act in conjunction. There is a rumor here that a portion of the Rebels have crossed the Potomac below Harper's Ferry.

A gentleman from Frederick City, now in town, who has been in consultation at headquarters, says he counted the Rebels as they passed through Frederick, and they numbered thirty-eight thousand infantry, with one hundred and forty pieces of artillery.

A portion of this force was to meet A. P. Hill, at Letchworth, with reinforcements. This is reliable.

All quiet on the Northern Central Railroad. There are no Rebels on the line, which is being repaired as fast as possible. Baltimore and Washington are still threatened by a large force.

BURNING OF A CHURCH.

ATONIA, Md., July 12.—The Orthodox Church in this place was struck by lightning last night and entirely destroyed. The loss on the building is nearly $25,000, and on the organs, $3,000.

TRAIN FOR BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

The departure of the noon train for Baltimore to-day was postponed until half past two o'clock P. M.

A large number of passengers were congregated at the depot this morning, waiting for the train to Baltimore. The train was delayed by the Rebels in the vicinity of Perryville, from which point passengers will reach Baltimore by boat.

Bill Vetoed.—The Mayor has vetoed the bill making an appropriation to the Department of City Property, including $100,000 for improvements in Fairmount Park. The Mayor is of the opinion that the present condition of the city treasury will not warrant this large expenditure for such a purpose.

Ona Howard's Death.—Colonel Howard, the "Supervisory Committee" for recruiting colored regiments have received authority from General Canby to raise a regiment of one hundred colored men.
